

ABOUT OUR FOUNDATIONS

Leaders' Quest works in partnership with two charities: Future Stewards in the US; and the Leaders' Quest Foundation in the UK.

Who is Leaders' Quest Foundation?

We are a registered charity (charity registration number 1104192), registered with the Charity Commission of England & Wales with the following charitable objects:

1. Advance education
2. Relieve poverty by supporting such charitable causes as the trustees may from time to time determine
3. Promote sustainable development through:
 - The preservation, conservation and the protection of the environment and the prudent use of resources
 - The relief of poverty and the improvement of the conditions of life in socially and economically disadvantaged communities
 - The promotion of sustainable means of achieving economic growth and regeneration. By sustainable development we mean development which meets the needs of the present without compromising the ability of future generations to meet their own needs.

Who runs Leaders' Quest Foundation?

The Foundation is run by a committed board of trustees who have day to day responsibility for the charity. Our trustees are also supported by staff seconded from Leaders' Quest and on occasion other organizations from the Future Stewards network.

Is Leaders' Quest Foundation independent from Leaders' Quest Ltd?

We are an independent charity which benefits from support and funding from Leaders' Quest. When our trustees make decisions about what activities we will fund, they do so acting in the charity's best interests, and will draw on our links with Leaders' Quest, if and when they believe that doing so will help us achieve our charitable aims.

Our independence is maintained by:

- A mixed board of trustees – one of our trustees is also a director of Leaders' Quest Ltd but the remainder are not.
- A commitment by our trustees to protect our independence and do the best for those we support.
